Wakefield P-TA To Be Organized

The first Parent-Teacher Association at the new Wakefield Junior High School will be formed tonight at a meeting at Thomas Jefferson Junior High School.

Nominated for president are C. Ira Funston or O. Glen Stahl. A complete dual slate of officers will be presented to the future members but nominations will also be in order from the floor.

The organizational meeting, which will begin at eight o'clock in the school auditorium, was sponsored primarily by the County Council of P-TA. Dr. Phoebe H. Knipling, Council president, will preside over the meeting.

A steering committee, composed of representatives from Barcroft, Barrett, Claremont, Custis, Fairlington, Glencarlyn, Jefferson, Madison, Oakridge and Randolph, has worked in cooperation with the Council in laying the groundwork.

The school, which will be the second white high school in the county, is scheduled to open in the Fall to about 1,480 students in grades 7, 8, 9 and 10.
